

NO TOBACCO POLICY

- In order to maintain a safe, clean and healthy environment for every employee, chewing and/or smoking of tobacco is prohibited in all premises of Sansu Aquatek as well as at the working areas in the customer premises.
- To assure protection of employees including that of contractors' employees and clients against the health and fire hazards of smoking as part of commitment to provide and maintain for every employee a safe and healthy environment.
- All team leaders and employees must ensure that health and personal safety of everyone is treated with equal standing to the Company's other business activities and enforce No Tobacco Policy.
- Management should make employees aware about the ill effects of chewing and /or smoking Tobacco.